THE OBITUARY

Will C. Lenoir, Jr. was known as Jr. was born in West Point, Mississippi on March 11, 1954 to Will C. Lenoir and the late Bernice Lenoir. To this union eight children were born. Jr. was the eldest son. In 1968 his father Will C. remarried Leona Jefferson and a family of 13 was united. In 2001 his father preceded him in death.

Jr. accepted Christ at an early age. In 1972 Jr. became employed with Chrysler McGraw Glass in Dearborn, Michigan. Jr. fathered his only son, Eric. Later in 1974, Jr. married Cynthia Rowser and to this union two children were born. Jr. was loving, kind, free-hearted, and family oriented. He was devoted to his children and his grandchildren meant the world to him.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife of 35 years, Cynthia; three children, Eric, Keara (Robert) and Jennifer; mother, Leona of Southaven, MS; grandmother, Manervia of West Point, MS; six grandchildren, Tiara, Wesley Jr., Alyssa, Simone, Jaylin (preceded him in death), Robert Jr.; mother-in-law, Lula Carter (Bill); father-in-law, George Rowser (preceded him in death); two brothers-in-law, George and James; one sister-in-law, Michelle (Ken); six brothers, Otis (the late Lynn Fleming), Gregory (Paula), Calvin, Joe Nathan, Anthony (Margaret) and Kenneth; six sisters, Mary Ellen (Terry Sr.) of Georgia, Vivian, Gloria, Gladys (Stan), Trina (James, Jr.) and Toddra (James III) of Murfreesboro, TN. He has 36 nieces and nephews and a host of great-nieces and nephews, aunts, uncles, relatives and friends.

Daddy, I miss you. Even though you are gone, to a better place you are still here with me, in my heart. I will love you forever.

– Jennifer

Sometimes it's hard to understand and harder still to say,
Thy will be done when sorrow comes and sadness fills our day.
But faith was meant for times like these and if we take God's hand
With loving wisdom He will help our hearts to understand

A Precious One

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we love is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home -
Which never can be filled.

And after a lonely heartache
And many a silent tear,
But always a beautiful memory -
Of one we love so dear.
