

*God saw the road was getting rough,
The hill was hard to climb,
He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered, "Peace be thine".*

*The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights are passed,
The ever patient worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.*

The Obituary

Janice was born in Boston, Massachusetts on August 6, 1955. Her adoptive parents, Earl and Jeannette Van Hook picked her up from the hospital eight days later.

Janice had the privilege of living in many different states while growing up as her family traveled to meet the needs of her dad's job. Her fondest memories were of Louisiana. When Janice was 11 years old her adopted mother died and shortly afterwards, her father married Patricia. Janice instantly acquired two stepsisters and two stepbrothers and a year later, her half-sister, was born.

Janice graduated from Vista Maria High School in 1973.

In 1976, Janice married Wilkes S. Washington and out of this union, her daughter, Jeannette Christina was born.

Janice always wanted to have a son and in 1983, she was blessed with twin sons, Kevin and Calvin; (whose father passed before their birth).

Janice always enjoyed school and as a result, obtained a number of certifications/degrees. Among them, a Computerized Accounting Certificate, a Cake Decorating Certificate, a Child Development Associate and an Associate of Arts Degree.

Janice started her career as a Youth Group Leader by working at her church, Grandale Presbyterian Church of the Master. Janice was active in many venues while she attended Grandale. She sang in the choir, served as Deacon Board Moderator, and was a member of the Mission Board. (Janice's three children and godson were baptized at Grandale.) Later in her career, Janice began to work with pre-school children and found this to be her calling. She loved going to work and stayed in this profession until the physical requirements became too much for her.

Janice was a breast cancer survivor and a hip replacement recipient.

In 1996, Janice met her second husband, Willie D. Daniels Jr. In 2008, they separated but remained friends.

Janice, then, resided with her godmother, Ollie Mae Shamblin.

Janice leaves behind three children: daughter, Jeannette (grandchildren, Precious and DaJohn); sons, Kevin and Calvin; her friend of 28 years, Jennifer; (godsons, Jason, Joshua and Jason Jr.); her foster daughter, Crystal and three foster grandchildren; a foster niece, Natasha (Derrick); stepbrothers, Tom and Bobby; stepsisters, Debbie and Susie; half-sister, Renee; a special friend, Jean; a longtime friend, Marsha; some great-nieces and nephews and a host of friends.
